

Paper Technologist (m/f/d)

Description

- Preparing raw materials and auxiliary materials for production
- Operating machinery throughout the production area, including equipment in stock preparation, paper manufacturing, and finishing processes following appropriate training
- Continuous documentation of production and machine data in accordance with company procedures
- Cleaning and housekeeping activities
- Ensuring product quality by working according to specifications, procedures, and other requirements
- Packaging finished products for shipment
- Assisting with repairs and troubleshooting activities
- Minimizing waste, rejects, and material losses

Qualifications

- Successfully completed vocational training as a Paper Technologist or several years of experience in paper manufacturing production, or a comparable qualification
- Good German language skills
- Forklift license
- Knowledge of production equipment and manufacturing processes
- High level of responsibility and ability to work independently
- Computer skills (MS Office)
- Quick comprehension and willingness to learn
- Strong teamwork skills
- Willingness to work in a three-shift system

Job Benefits

- An established market position in the specialty paper industry
- A motivated and experienced team with global expertise
- An attractive workplace with excellent development opportunities
- Collective bargaining agreement salary, including holiday and Christmas bonuses
- 32 days of annual leave
- Company pension scheme
- Supplementary company health insurance
- Subsidized membership at a local fitness center
- Health and wellness initiatives
- Company events

Hiring organization

JagoTech Paper GmbH

Employment Type

Full-time

Beginning of employment

immediately

Job Location

Hoffnungsthal 3, 57610 Almersbach